Council opposes site access across gardens

COUNCILLORS have spoken out against a town centre development amid concerns it will cause a “vast disturbance”.

Seaton Town councillors opposed an application for a licence to allow developers access across Windsor Gardens at last Monday's full town council.

The work to build 13 dwellings, an access road, parking, turning areas and a cycle track, is due to take 12 months to complete.

In return for the temporary access, the developer will be rebuilding the falling L-shaped wall in the corner of the Windsor Gardens plot as well as regenerating the gardens, replanting trees and shrubs and renovating the rose bed.

Town councillors believe residents in Seaton will gain nothing from the development other than months of disruption with no community benefit. There were also worries about 16 ton lorries causing congestion in the town and reversing in and around Cross Street.

Councillor James Semple said: “It is wrong that the public have not been consulted about this licence for access. East Devon District Council are breaking an obligation to consult the public. EDDC should have made the effort to bend over backwards for the people of Seaton and it is just not good enough.”

Councillor Val Christmas added: “We have no guarantee that these homes will be a benefit to the community, and no certainty that they will be affordable or for the direct use of residents from Seaton who need housing.”

District councillor and Seaton town member champion, Steph Jones, who attended the meeting, commented on the need for a further investigation to take place from both EDDC and town councillors.

She raised issues regarding the traffic and parking bays on Cross Street being

Town may go to the polls again

THE people of Seaton could soon be going to the polls again to elect a new town councillor.

Long-standing councillor Ray Morgan, vice chairman of Seaton Town Council, has had to step down due to ill health.

At the full town council meeting last Monday, Councillor John Meakin was selected to take Councillor Morgan's place as vice-chairman for the rest of the municipal year.

The town council are now in their first stage of the process to find a new councillor.

For an election to be held ten electors have to write to the Returning Officer calling for an election. Letters must be sent to Returning Officer, EDDC, Knowle, Sidmouth, Devon EX10 8HL by October 3rd.

If ten electors do not request an election, the council will be able to advertise for suitable candidates and fill the vacancy by co-option.

Seaton gardens vote

SEATON residents have voted on the preferences for the transformation of Seaford Gardens.

At two voting events organised by East Devon District Council, 139 votes were cast.

The winning design to create an amphitheatre-style seating looking out to sea with tables that double up as chess and draughts boards was chosen by 60 per cent of those who voted.

Quotes of the week...

“ I WANT people to see the real me and my personality as an individual around the college. Part of my appointment to this role was my personality and what I could bring as an individual and I want this to shine through to the students. It is important to see me as a human being that people can approach and see as a brother, son or husband - not just the college principal. **”

New principal Kenny Duncan on his vision for Sidmouth College.

“ I THINK the most amazing person in all of this is my donor and their family. I have so much respect and admiration for them and constantly thought of my donor's generosity which made it all possible. I just hope we can help save more lives like my own and it was a huge reminder to me when we got to Harefield and I met a girl just like myself - three weeks post double transplant operation due to cystic fibrosis. **”

Tigers staying put for the time being

AXMINSTER Town's fond farewell to Sector Lane is on hold - at least for another few weeks. Contrary to reports in other newspapers, Saturday's 1-0 victory over Galmpton United was not the Tigers' swan-song at Sector.

Axminster are planning to move to a new ground in Chard Road, having agreed to sell Sector to developers Devonshire Homes who will be building 71 new homes on the football field.

Devonshire Homes have just secured £150,000 funding for their development plans and are anxious to start work on the first stage. Whilst work continued on the new Chard Road site, the Tigers were planning to ground-share with Ottery St Mary at Washbrook Meadows.

But it is unlikely that Axminster will be vacating Sector Lane any day soon as the seeding of the new pitches at Chard Road, due this autumn, has been put back to next spring. See page 64

Huge crowds for carnival night

HUGE crowds descended on Axminster on Saturday evening for the town's busiest night of the year - the annual carnival procession.

Organisers reported that collections were up on last year and police had a fairly quiet evening, reporting just two arrests, although they confiscated "numerous bottles" of alcohol from underage drinkers.

The showpiece event was won overall by Sid Vale Carnival Club's "Bump In The Night" entry, which impressed crowds and judges alike.

Organisers say the collecting teams took a total of £1,500 plus, about £200 better than last year.

Skatepark chosen

A SKATEPARK has been chosen as the most popular option to spend a £22,500 grant on in Colyton.

East Devon District Council held a vote on which sporting facility the people of Colyton would most like to see the Section 106 money, offered by housing developers, spent on. More than 200 residents took part in the vote.

The most popular option was a skatepark with a small number of ramps, with the second being an all-age outdoor gym and the third being a sports activity wall.

From the editor's chair A cracking night!

IT'S been some years since I have been able to watch a carnival rather than reporting on it. But on Saturday, with our chief reporter Anders Larsson being given the privilege of covering Axminster Carnival, Jackie and I were able to stand in the crowd and enjoy the spectacle.

We watched the procession pass through Trinity Square with Courtenay and Lynn Popple. Courtenay is the son of the late Roy Popple who ran Popple's Newsagents in Axminster during the days when people queued right down the street to buy their Pulman's Weekly News.

Courtenay became my distribution manager when I set up the Star group of free newspapers in Mid Devon back in the 1980s and it became the subject of great hilarity among the staff that he ended up being allergic to newsprint, the dust from which made his tongue swell!

But Courtenay coped well with his allergy and was a brilliantly loyal and efficient staff member. We bump into each periodically and always end up talking about our newspaper days together and the fun we had.

I wanted to make sure I saw the Axminster Carnival to support Mervyn Symes, who did his usual splendid job commentating in Trinity Square in his inimitable style.

Axminster lags a bit behind the other East Devon carnivals when it comes to week-long events. But on the night, the Axminster procession is always one of the best and Saturday's was no exception with a mostly well behaved huge crowd and some fantastic entries.

It was good to see some of the former Axminster Carnival Queens in the procession and I thought Sid Vale Carnival Club's "Bump In The Night", which won best in procession, was brilliant.

For sheer comic delight, the Nunsford Nutters from Colyton with their "Properrrr Job" float, was just hilarious. Nutters by name, nutters by nature! A cracking night all round.

SIDMOUTH

Vision for college

THE new principal of Sidmouth College has had a whirlwind first few weeks as he settles into the school and sets up his plans for the future.

Scot Kenny Duncan was appointed as new principal of the college in April, taking over from previous headteacher Jeremy Roberts and looking to follow in his success.

This is Mr Duncan's sixth teaching post and he has been working in the education sector for more than 20 years.

Mr Duncan's hands-on attitude hasn't gone unnoticed and already the mountain biking and diving enthusiast has set himself the challenge of increasing the school's status at this year's Ofsted visit.

He said: "The college was deemed as 'satisfactory' and Jeremy Roberts did a great job boosting that status to 'good'. Now I want to take the college from good to 'outstanding' and really show off what we can do here."

Development plans could get back on track

A STALLED housing development in Seaton could be kick-started after planners recommended that some conditions can be scrapped.

When given outline planning permission for 90 apartments on the former Racial site at Seaton Quay, Axe Riverside Company agreed to provide 36 units of social housing (on or off site), a contribution for loss of employment land, a contribution towards recreational facilities and to carry out work on a walkway and the quay under a Section 106 agreement.

That permission was given in April 2010, but the developer has since approached EDDC to have some of the conditions removed.

The conditions were made under what is known as a Section 106 agreement, and an EDDC report

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

stated: "In March 2012 the council was approached by the applicant suggesting that, in view of the difficulties of bringing the scheme forward in the current economic climate, the legal agreement should be altered - dropping the requirement for housing and financial contributions."

The report also explained that the developer offered to pay £500,000 in exchange for removing the requirement for housing and financial contributions.

EDDC consulted the District Valuer, and the report said: "The applicant's offer was considered by the District Valuer to be reasonable."

"It is clear from the assessment by the District Valuer that at current market values for housing, the overall scheme could not be brought forward on a secure financial basis for the developer if the affordable housing element was insisted upon.

"It is recommended that the revised legal agreement be accepted subject to the agreement of final revisions and wording."

The matter will be decided by district councillors when EDDC's Development Management Committee meets today (September 18th).

An outline planning application is submitted to determine if the type of proposal is suitable for the location concerned.

If approved, a full planning application must then be submitted.

Increase in numbers at dolls house exhibition

THE 2012 Dolls House Exhibition in the Station Gallery at Pecorama was again a great success.

Of the two days, Saturday was the busier and overall there was an eight per cent increase in visitor numbers on last year.

Exeter Dolls House and Miniatures Club put on another great display, which included both dolls houses and room boxes.

Jaspers Miniatures of Exeter were also present both days with a fascinating collection of miniature items for sale.

affected and said that "highways should look at the application for licence to access the gardens in more depth".

She added: "There needs to be more consultation with the public and the emergency services about how this disturbance will affect them. If amendments have been made to increase the dwellings on the development site, then Section 106 money should also have been enhanced to reflect this."

EDDC's Deputy Portfolio Holder for Environment, Councillor Phil Twiss, told councillors that as a council it was their duty to minimise the funds they pay out and maximise their assets whilst trying not to burden East Devon taxpayers.

He said: "I am reasonably satisfied that the money EDDC and tax payers will save from rebuilding the wall will work in the town's favour through allowing temporary access to the developer and allowing them to rebuild the L-shaped wall."

"Yes, there will be disruption as happens with all development sites, but we are confident that after the 12 month period of access through the gardens that they will be returned to the desired state, and improved."

Town councillors plan to contact the emergency services, as well as organisations such as the nearby church, businesses, and residents in the area who may be affected to gather evidence to oppose the licence for access across the gardens.

Your chance to sing

THE Churches Together Singers in Seaton are looking for singers to join their choir in time for their Christmas concert.

The group who formed earlier this year have been going from strength to strength after already holding two successful charity concerts - Olivet to Calvary and Saints Alive - raising £1,000.

The Christmas concert will be held on Saturday, December 8th and will feature a selection of carols including those by John Rutter and from John Peterson's 'Night of Miracles'.

The choir welcomes all singers, regardless of their ability and it is not essential to be able to read music.

If you would like to join the choir and take part in the Christmas concert, come along to the Methodist Church, with the first session taking place on Friday, September 21st at 7:30pm.

Young people urged to get their ideas down on paper

HONITON and District Writers' Group's 2012 Young Writers' Competition is open to those aged 5-18 who live in East Devon.

The competition is sponsored by The Gibbons Family Trust, and the mission is to write an original story of up to 750 words on any subject.

Writing group member John Carter said: "Last year's competition was a great success and we had some wonderful work from many young authors, so we know there is real talent out there.

"So come on you young writers, why not brush the dust of those imaginative ideas you have been storing up and once again show us what you can do, even if it's your first effort at writing a story, have a go."

The entries will again be judged by popular children's writer T. M. Alexander, author of the Tribe series of books.

Mr Carter added: "Sixty-three junior schools and nine senior schools are being asked to get involved, but any resident East Devon boy or girl can enter.

"Six winners will be chosen from the two junior age groups and six from the two senior age groups.

"Each will receive a signed framed certificate, a generous gift token and an author's signed book."

Entries must be in by November 10th and prizes will be presented at a reception in early December.

Stories should be sent with a title and a separate sheet showing name, age, telephone number and address, (with consent from parents/teachers) to: John Carter, Smokey House, Yarcombe, Honiton, Devon EX14 9AD.

Honiton and District Writers' Group meets at 7.30pm on the first Thursday of every month in Monkton Court Hotel, Monkton.

■ AIMING FOR A COMMUNITY FEEL: Ann-Marie and Dominic Dixon at the George Inn in Chardstock

Cheers, say new couple at village pub

THE new landlords of The George Inn in Chardstock have thanked staff and the local community for the support given during a hectic first month.

"It's been hard work, we couldn't have gone through it without the staff and the support from the community," said Ann-Marie Dixon.

Ann-Marie and her husband, Dominic, have lived in the village for 14 years and had the chance to take over the pub six years ago.

At that time they decided against it because Ann-Marie was pregnant and Dominic was involved with building projects.

Ann-Marie has previous experience of the hospitality sector, being a former manager with TrustHouse Forte.

Dominic, however, is new to the trade but his background as a builder and property developer comes in handy for the ongoing renovation of the pub. Among other things, the whole pub is about to be re-floored with oak.

Since taking over, they have introduced a menu featuring "realistically priced traditional pub grub" with new chef Dan Passmore. There is also a children's menu, and Dominic said: "We have four children, so we know that children don't always want the same food as their parents."

The pub used to be closed on Mondays, but Ann-Marie and Dominic say it is now business seven days a week. They want to give the pub a community feel, with local families bringing their children and dogs in to enjoy what is on offer at affordable prices.

The final touches are currently being applied to the Christmas menu, and future plans include a regular live music night and guest bitters from local micro-breweries.

Girls lead in 'reading Olympics'

FORTY children have so far completed Axminster Library's summer reading challenge, Story Lab.

Participants were tasked with reading any six library books during the summer holidays, collecting bronze, silver and gold stickers as they went along.

Those who completed the challenge were invited to attend a closing ceremony in late August with an Olympic-style medal ceremony, complete with podium, flowers and gold medals.

Penny Davis, of Axminster Library, said that 121 children started the challenge, and added: "If children still want to complete the challenge in the next couple of weeks, they can – there are still some gold medals left and we would love to see more boys gaining their gold medals. So far, the girls are beating the boys 25-15."

EIGHT-year-old May Robinson is the proud holder of a Book Track certificate after having read 100 books from Axminster Library. In addition to a certificate and badge, May was also presented with vouchers to Pecorama, Escot, Archway Bookshop and Flamingo Pool plus a bookmark and a bag with writing equipment. May is pictured receiving her certificate from Penny Davis at Axminster Library.

RUNNER-UP: Tara Magrane, aged 11, finished joint second in a county-wide mystery book jacket competition – organised by the library service at Devon County Council.

Contestants were given clues from which to identify a set number of book covers. Tara is photographed being presented with her runner-up prizes from Diana Lee of Axminster Library.

BETTER THAN THE BIG TOWN STORES BY A COUNTRY MILE

■ LET'S GO TO TOWN: Mr Grant with copies of Ecosystem Services Come To Town hot off the press

Second ecology book published

A FREELANCE ecologist from Axminster has had a second book published.

The book targets people like planners and architects, but author Gary Grant says "Ecosystem Services Come To Town" is also readable and inspirational to the man in the street. The book demonstrates ways to make urban environments greener.

Mr Grant, who has lived in Axminster since 1999, is currently on a UK and Ireland seminar tour promoting the book.

His first book was about green roofs, and he described himself by saying: "I work closely with built environment professionals, encouraging them to use the ecosystem services approach.

"I began work with London Wildlife Trust in the 1980s and moved into consultancy in 1989, spending most of the 1990s in Hong Kong."

Until 2009 he was a director with a company called AECOM Design + Planning and worked on projects including Bedford River Valley Park and the London 2012 Olympic Park.

More information about the book is available online at www.wiley.com/buy/9781405195065

New governors at school meet for the first time

THE new governing body at All Saints Primary School has met for the first time.

As reported last week, the previous governors resigned on September 4th after it emerged that suspended headteacher Christine Hollidge could return.

The fall-out between Mrs Hollidge and the previous governors has been well-publicised since last autumn. Details of the investigation remain secret but it has emerged that Mrs Hollidge is still suspended despite her return appearing to be a distinct possibility.

In a letter to parents dated September 12th, chairman of governors Michelle Perryman wrote: "Last night the chair and vice-chair were elected and the governors began the process of managing their workload and agreeing delegation.

"At the next meeting we will be looking at the parent governor vacancies as a matter of urgency. The new governing body continues to work closely with both the local authority and the diocese, their ongoing advice and support is welcomed and appreciated.

"Finally I have to inform you that at the present time Mrs Hollidge continues to be suspended from her role as headteacher and that Martin O'Mahony will continue his role as acting headteacher."

Mrs Hollidge's union representative had not responded to a request for comment at the time of going to press.

Five injured in two-car crash

A 25-YEAR-OLD woman from the Axminster area was airlifted to hospital with leg injuries after a two-car accident on the A35 outside The Old Inn.

A total of five people were injured in the accident, with three of them being taken to hospital.

The accident happened just before 1pm on Thursday, September 13th.

The Old Inn landlord Duncan Colvin said: "I heard it and ran out. I picked up my phone but three people did the same. The eastbound car ended up in the pub car park. The air ambulance landed in the field behind the pub."

A spokesperson for Devon Air Ambulance Trust said: "The Exeter-based helicopter deployed within three minutes of the 999 call being received.

"One trapped adult female was flown to Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital."

Fire appliances from Axminster and Colyton were also in attendance.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Crews used hydraulic rescue equipment to release the casualty."

"There were four other casualties, all clear of the vehicles prior to the arrival of the fire service."

A spokesperson for the ambulance service explained that three of the casualties were taken to hospital - one by air and two by road.

A police spokesperson said: "The collision involved a Ford Mondeo and a Rover 25."

The driver of the Rover, a 25-year-old woman from the Axminster area, was airlifted to hospital.

THE Seaton and District Club for the Visually Impaired have received a welcome boost from the Waitrose Community Fund.

The group's treasurer, Elizabeth Barlow, went along to the Wait-rose store in Sidmouth to receive a cheque for £210 after the group were chosen by customers to receive the donation.

Peco give Macmillan a boost

SIDMOUTH'S branch of Macmillan Cancer Support received a welcome boost when they received a cheque for £1781.93 from Pecorama in Beer.

Peco waived the entry fee to the Gardens and Model Railway Exhibition to encourage visitors to donate to Macmillan during a special open garden day for charity in July and the company also made a donation to both.

The cheque was presented to chairman of the branch, Joyce Burnham, who was over the moon with the donation.

She said: "We have been trying for a few years to be selected as a chosen charity for Peco's open garden charity days and it was third time lucky for us.

"We are so grateful to everyone at Pecorama for giving us such a wonderful location to collect in and for helping to raise our fundraising profile."

Tourism Manager for Pecorama, Mark Ridgers, was pleased to hand over the cheque and said: "We are delighted to have supported Sidmouth's Macmillan Cancer Support branch which is a very worthy cause and need every penny to continue their good work. Thanks to all who helped raise such an impressive amount in just one day."

Pecorama also welcomed Children's Hospice South West to their charity day and donated a further £1323.06 to the children's charity.

Plaque marks town's historic benefactors

A PLAQUE was unveiled at Colyton Cottage on Saturday to commemorate Commander George Eyre Powell and his family - former great benefactors to Colyton.

The plaque was unveiled on the family's former home by chairman of the Colyton Chamber of Feoffees, Philip Richards, and Jim Board in the absence of his brother, Sid Powell, the current executor of the Powell estate and known locally for his involvement in Colyton Social Club.

Mr Board said it gave him "great pleasure" to unveil the plaque on the Eyre Powell family's former residence. He spoke of how they were great benefactors to Colyton and said the plaque "honoured this great family's generosity."

Colyton Parish History Society member, John Cochrane, then spoke about the life of Commander Eyre Powell, born in 1790 at Great Connel.

In 1806, one year after the Battle of Trafalgar, he joined the Navy as a midshipman, serving on the Wizard, a 16 gun brig-sloop, used to capture and destroy French supply ships in the Mediterranean.

In 1809 he was transferred to the frigate Amphion and placed in command of a tender on which he succeeded in capturing many enemy's vessels. However, when in charge of two heavily laden prizes, he was attacked by French warships and was forced to surrender.

Eyre Powell was imprisoned, first in Ancona and then marched across the Alps to Verdun. From here with two companions he managed to escape and, after making their way to Hollan, they commandeered a fishing boat and were picked up in the Channel.

He served further in the Atlantic and Mediterranean. He was then appointed to the Victory, then the guard ship in Portsmouth and was promoted to Commander.

In 1819 he married Catherine Kingdon and they lived in Dorset before moving to Colyton Cottage in 1826. They carried out much-needed renovation to the house, transforming the garden and building a large glass-fronted summer house and a grotto lined with shells.

Commander Eyre Powell, known in the town as Captain Powell, took an active part in local affairs and was treasurer of George's Meeting House until his death in 1855, under which he is now buried. He also served on the Chamber of Feoffees.

He and his wife had six children but their only son died of scarlet fever aged 17.

Axminster Awareness Centre

Therapist team supports the Canned Sunshine Project

THE team of Complementary Therapists at the Axminster Awareness Centre has organised a fund-raising event in aid of Axminster's foodbank, the Canned Sunshine Project.

The therapists are holding a Health and Well-being Day to promote the beneficial effects of the range of therapies they practise. Visitors can enjoy taster sessions and see live demos of a selection of the therapies available at the Centre.

Therapists' Coordinator, Deborah Pearce, explains: "As well as enabling visitors to learn more about the complementary therapies we offer, we also hope to raise funds for Canned Sunshine through donations and the sale of tea, coffee and cake. We're also having a book stall.

"It's our way of supporting the local community, and we're looking forward to welcoming anyone who is curious about the therapies we offer".

The Health and Well-being Day is being held at the Axminster Awareness Centre on Thursday 27th September from 10am to 2pm.

Twenty years

2012 is celebrating the Axminster Awareness Centre's 20th year. In those 20 years the charity has proudly assisted in helping over 20,000 people who have needed support. The Centre started with a handful of budding volunteers who actively engaged in supporting self-help awareness. The building was rented in 1991 and the dedicated volunteers spent one year of their free time renovating the building so it could be opened to the public in 1992. The Centre started with just a handful of enthusiastic therapists including Gillian Perrow, who has worked at the centre for over 20 years and is now the Chair of Trustees. Gillian, a trained counsellor, remembers the generosity of John Tweed who donated substantially to the charity to enable them to buy Hanover House in Chard Street, Axminster in 1994.

The Centre

Within the centre there are six multipurpose rooms to hire, classes, a library, tea and coffee facilities and a beautiful garden. The rooms at only £6 per hour can facilitate all kinds of meetings or training. Look out for our new look rooms this autumn. Yoga and meditation are run weekly for a 'de-stress' midweek. Our library is very extensive with a wide selection of self-help books from nutrition to time management. With donations as little as 20 pence per book there is so much knowledge at your fingertips. Many people choose to make a cuppa, unwind and dive into a good book. Additionally, many people choose to come and sit in our peaceful garden to unwind. Our website www.awarenesscentre.org.uk will give you all the details you need or drop us a line at info@awarenesscentre.org.uk

Volunteers

Volunteers are the heartbeat of the Axminster Awareness Centre as the receptionists and healers all work on a voluntary basis. Many people who come into the Centre for services find they would like to give back and without this dedication the Centre would not function. Our devoted volunteers run the reception, keep the garden and even help fundraise outside working hours. They are much appreciated and the Centre would like to thank them for all their help over the years.

Complementary Therapies

Complementary therapies play a large part in the day to day running of the centre. These therapies have grown over the last 20 years and most can say they have had or regularly visit a therapist for physical or emotional support. 20 years ago the centre started with only 3 therapists but now it boasts a very extensive group of therapists offering: acupuncture, cranial osteopathy, counselling, Indian head massage, Hopi candles, hypnotherapy, massage, osteopathy, precision reflexology and shiatsu. Our latest complementary therapy is lymphatic drainage massage - lymphatic drainage will benefit those coping with general fluid retention, poor circulation, lowered immunity, swelling through injury, cellulite, arthritis and skin disorders reflecting congestion. Since the massage movements use light repetitive pressures, it is also suitable as a soothing stress reduction treatment. Want to know more? Why not come along to the health and Wellbeing day on the 27th September 10:00am - 4:00pm and meet the therapists. Enjoy relaxing tasters or have your blood pressure checked or just check out what's new.

How the Centre can help you

Although things change over the years the ethos of the Centre has always been about the visitor experience. Many people can find it very difficult in times of illness or in periods of change. The support offered by the centre can range from physical support such as back problems, headaches, muscular discomfort, posture, stomach issues to cancer and hidden illnesses. Although important, many forget about the impact the mind has on our daily lives and so therapies can also help with issues like stress, relationship breakdowns, depression or phobias. If you think you may be suffering from some kind of physical or emotional stress, come in to the centre and see what our therapists can do for you.

Canned Sunshine

More recently the Axminster Awareness Centre has been going out into the community by the start of a lottery funded food bank project. The project, Canned Sunshine, aims to meet the needs of an ever increasing sector of the public who find it difficult to make ends meet. You may have seen us out and about, should you like to support, have a spring clean of your cupboards or pop into the Cooperative and donate food, Canned Sunshine would be over the moon. The project is lottery funded and was awarded nearly £8,000 to get the project off the ground. This winter will see the start of a youth farm to accompany the project to achieve sustainability.

Healing

Healing is an integral part of the Centre's wellbeing hub. We offer a drop in healing sessions on Monday mornings and Tuesday and Thursday 10am-4pm by donation. Healing sessions can also be made by appointment when necessary. Healing is a fully clothed session which can be done sitting or lying down with hands on or off. The basis of healing is for the person to relax so that the body can rebalance its energy. The centre also offers healing course to train new healers or to update skills. A great experience if you are in need of some relaxation.

Friday Night talks and the weekend programme

Fridays offer talks which have been running for over 20 years before the charity was established offering a wide variety of interest. The talks are a good way to explore and spark interest – who knows - you may have a hidden talent you never knew you had. In addition, there are weekend courses for training and information from healthcare, ghost busting and how to make your home into a safe sanctuary. Autumn programmes are now out and can be picked up from the Centre.

The Future

So what's next for the Centre? The Centre has a huge wish list and through the help of the community we are hoping to initiate a cancer support service this autumn, have many more charity events, an international group and a drop in clinic for minor ailments. The Centre is growing all the time and we would love to hear from the community on their views on how we can help them. As a charity we would like to give back to the community who has backed us all these years. Have your say and please let us know what you think is missing in our community. Our door is always open and we welcome new and old alike.

And Finally

The Centre prides itself on being open 5 days a week for anyone would like to drop in for complementary therapies, healing by appointment, general advice on self-help or simply for a cuppa and a smiling face. The centre is open to all ranging from babies upwards; you're never too young or too old to experience something new. With a self-help library which has been built up over the 20 years, we have one of the most extensive libraries in the area and it's only by donation. The Axminster Awareness Centre strives to engage, stimulate and enhance the mind, body and soul of each individual who visits the Centre. If you feel this has informed you, why not pop into the Centre, hire one of our multi-purpose rooms, volunteer or continue your journey with us. Call us today on 01297 32331

YOUR LETTER COULD WIN £10 VOUCHER to spend at Archway Bookshop, Axminster

How many more collisions will it take?

■ LAST Thursday, yet another serious vehicle crash occurred on the A35 at Kilmington; this time requiring the call-out of the air-ambulance.

This stretch of highway must be one of the most potentially dangerous in the area. Consider this – the main road is bounded by a popular public house, and an extensive vehicle service-station area.

The crossroads, where drivers and pedestrians take their lives in their hands every time they approach, serve a busy farm shop in one direction; and Kilmington village, its hall, school and shop in the other.

All these establishments create traffic, adults and children; and all have to live with danger each time they approach the A35.

And what have the traffic authorities done about this obvious 'black spot'? After much deliberation they decided to cut the approach speed limit from 60 to 50 mph. Big deal!

The effect on the overall traffic speed has been negligible, and when you are faced with a 40-ton articulated truck hurtling down the hill towards this area of population and rural activity, anything can happen – and occasionally does.

This situation should just not be allowed to continue. A police spokesman tells me that there is nothing to stop a speed limit being reduced from 60 to 40, even 30 mph in one fell swoop, if the occasion demands.

Take the village of Wilmington, a few miles away up the same road. The place, and its people, are protected by 40 and 30 mph speed limits, and yet it contains none of the major traffic hazards to be found in Kilmington.

How do the traffic authorities get their assessment of the true dangers that exist in the two places, so wrong?

Solar is long term investment

■ WITH reference to the front page story in last week's Pulman's View from Seaton on the installation of solar panels at Seaton Hospital, I see that a £27,000 investment is predicted to generate 17,700KWh of electricity per year.

Over the last year, our well insulated, three bedroom 'semi' has consumed 11,500KWh of energy at a total cost of £690, so about one and a half of 'me' would require 17000KWh of energy at about £1,000.

Thus, even if no further maintenance costs were required, it would still require 27 years to get my money back – not a very enticing prospect!

BUT what about the £2,600 annual repayments? That is a subsidy, required because nobody would invest in a 27 year payback project and where does it come from? That's right, you and me, the taxpayer, so the more panels that are installed, the more we pay to support the subsidy.

Seaton Hospital may be leading but this is one path I will not be following.

CHARD SCHOOL
INDEPENDENT DAY SCHOOL & NURSERY

A hidden gem in the heart of Chard; our happy, friendly school aims for high academic standards.

THE new academic year, at our school for 2-11 year olds, has got off to a wonderful start with new children from the broad catchment area being welcomed by current pupils and fast making friendships.

In the classroom, pupils are enjoying the benefit of the introduction of wireless internet throughout and new laptops to use during lessons.

The Head, Mrs Jane Bruce, now well established in her new role, said: "It's a real pleasure to be the Head of Chard School. Our school fees are highly competitive and we are non-selective, relying on an excellent team of staff to encourage high standards and to raise expectations.

"We have an excellent academic record which has most recently been highlighted by a third of last year's Year 6 class passing their 11+ for Colyton Grammar School. Our Nursery takes children from 2 years of age and our broad and extensive curriculum (including French throughout the school and Spanish for the older children), as well as high standards in a variety of games, music and drama ensures that children are well prepared for secondary school".

We run breakfast and homework clubs every day, plus a large range of after-school clubs. Our new website at www.chardschool.co.uk gives more detailed information.

East Devon
Women's Institutes
ROUND UP

MUSBURY & WHITFORD WI

THE September meeting was held on Tuesday, September 11th at Whitford Village Hall. Apologies were taken and birthday posies given.

At this point the club usually welcomes the speaker, but unfortunately she was stuck on the motorway, so the meeting continued with business.

The Devon Federation of Women's Institutes has listened to pleas, and a resolution discussion meeting will take place in Sidmouth on Tuesday, November 27th at the Manor Theatre from 10am - please make an effort to attend this.

The autumn group meeting will take place at Seaton Methodist Centre on Wednesday, October 24th at 2:15pm.

The club received a thank you card from Axe Valley Wetlands for the cakes baked for their open weekend.

Smarties tubes are now available from Joy for the 20ps for the charity. To raise money for the club's funds, there will be sales table at the November meeting, with the suggestion of a Christmas theme. A sales table at future garden meetings has also been suggested.

The club then heard the treasurer's report - all is well - and then the birthday lunch location was discussed.

The speaker, Ann Holden, then gave her talk on the History of Hats. This was very interesting as she creates hats and had brought along some beautiful samples, which were modelled by members. She was thanked by Bee Sammons.

The next meeting is the Harvest Supper at Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, October 9th at 7pm.

SMEATHARPE WI

SMEATHARPE WI gathered, as usual, on the first Thursday of the month in Smeatharpe Village Hall.

The guest speaker for the meeting was Bob Adams, who gave an interesting talk about beginning Family Research.

Bob was very lucky to inherit a large number of early family photos, a family bible, furniture and paintings, which really helped him to get a picture of the life and times of his ancestors.

He explained the various sources that could usefully employed and gave examples of what could be found out from his own family documents.

He gave encouragement about what could be found, but also warnings of how you could be diverted down the wrong path.

Research is now much easier with the coming of the internet, which allows easy access to the census record from 1841 to 1911, and a large number of sites which give birth, marriage and death records.

The competition winner, 'My famous ancestor', was Sue Little. Teresa Summerhayes had the Flower of the month.

October's meeting will be a 'Bring and Buy' and Kathy Popham will demonstrate paper flower making, which will enable members to make decorations for the October celebration.

AXMINSTER PROBUS CLUB

IT USED to be the custom for new members of Axminster Probus Club to give a five minute introduction of their lives for the benefit of their fellows.

This has now been superseded because of the rich experience of so many of them.

For the September meeting it was the turn of David Jenkins. For 23 years a principal design engineer of aero engines for Rolls-Royce at Filton, Bristol, he worked on many of the iconic engines used in defence.

The only aircraft which was not military was Concorde and he gave an account of its development and also explained the circumstances which led to its withdrawal from service.

Once again the members' eyes have been opened by demonstration of the fulfilling life and experience of one of their fellows.

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the Kilmington Cafe, Bistro & Motel on the A35 at Gammons Hill on the first Tuesday of each month.

Written by countryside correspondent
TONY JACKSON

Poor harvest

WILL this, I wonder, be one of the worst harvests for years? Even as I write, towards mid-September, there are still fields of standing corn waiting for the combine.

Two fields away from my office a three acre field of barley is still standing but barely worth the time, effort and money in terms of yield. There is virtually no corn in the heads, or what there is remains stunted. I spoke to a farmer friend who has just completed cutting a substantial acreage of wheat, but the yield and quality is poor.

The natural hedgerow harvest is also disappointing. Where last autumn I picked pounds of sloes to make sloe gin or vodka, this year I have yet to see a single sloe, and while a few blackberries have ripened, the majority remain stunted, hard and red.

Nor have I seen any elderberries to speak of, so, all in all, the wretched summer and lack of sunshine seem to have wreaked havoc throughout the countryside. Perhaps, though, there will be compensation by way of a wild mushroom harvest.

The countryside is now turning autumnal. The fresh greens of early summer have turned darkly dowdy and leaves are crisp and browning. However, it seems that we may be in for a colourful autumn, as a result of the rain and recent sunshine.

Small enough compensation, however, for the dreadful summer. The only beneficiary, however, seems to have been rabbits! Myxomatosis struck in my area last year, reducing the abundant coney population to a tiny handful of survivors.

However, young and well grown rabbits are now to be seen on all sides, perhaps the result of enforced underground incarceration to avoid the rains! However, they are welcome as I thoroughly enjoy rabbit casserole or stew!

Now, I see that the Blackdown Hills Heritage Day is being held on Saturday, September 29th when 2,000 years of history will come to life. Free family events will be taking place across the Blackdown Hills, including an Iron Age experience and medieval pot making.

From 10am to 4pm, you can browse displays at Throgmorton Community Hall in Dunkeswell, including a hi-tech "fly" over the ancient landscape and view archive photographs and historic maps, while in the afternoon there will be a chance to experience life as a member of the Iron Age Dumnonii tribe at Newhaven Farm, Whitestaunton where archaeologist Mark Cox will show how local tribesmen turned iron ore into metal.

There will be guided visits to Dunkeswell Abbey and Castle Neroche, while visitors can also look at local building and agricultural traditions during a walk round Stockland. For full details go to www.blackdownhillsaonb.org.uk or call Katherine Findlay on 01823 681933.

Dorset Wildlife Trust's Upton Heath keeps popping up in the news. Readers may recall that a third of this important 500 acre site was devastated by arson, but as a result of generous donations from the public, heathland plants are already returning and, in order to assist the three Shetland cattle which are helping to keep the vegetation in check, a brace of rare British White cattle have joined the team.

The cattle, as a breed, go back hundreds of years but, due to a decline in numbers, are now listed as a minority breed. Three more British Whites, bought by DWT in partnership with the Borough of Poole, will add to the herd in the winter.

Grazing is the best way to manage and restore this rare habitat and will help to reduce vegetation susceptible to fire. The cattle are all dog and people-friendly but must not be fed or worried by dogs.

The views expressed are those of the columnist and not necessarily of the newspaper

TAE kwon-do instructor Gerry Waugh grew up in Scotland and moved to Devon in the 1980s, and to Axminster three years ago. Having trained in the martial art at local classes, Gerry became a full-time instructor last year and holds his own classes in Axminster, Sidmouth, Charmouth and Bridport. He is married to wife Vanessa, who helps with the admin side of his classes, and they have a 21-year-old son, Robbie, who is currently at university.

● HOW did you become interested in tae kwon-do?

I had dabbled in other martial arts, first judo as a young child and then karate as a teenager, but I didn't stick with them. I discovered tae kwon-do at a TAGB demo in Honiton in the 1990s.

The instructor at the time, Daren Sainsbury, put on a demo, which fascinated my son, but he was very young at the time and nothing came of it immediately. He didn't mention it again for a few years until he saw a neighbour going off in a "dobok" (tae kwon-do uniform) and then he asked to join.

We enrolled him in the classes and, as there are some similarities to karate, at least in the basics, I was able to help him at home for a while. But, as he moved through his first few belts, the differences became obvious and I was out of my depth, so I joined too.

By that time, he no longer needed my help and I was doing it for myself. I have never regretted it. Obviously, as my son started training first, he got his black belt before me, but I have very much enjoyed training alongside him.

As well as being a tae kwon-do instructor, I am also a qualified tournament referee and officiate at competitions all over the country.

● WHERE did you train?

Originally in Honiton, and also at other classes. Mr Sainsbury used to run three classes in Honiton, Axminster and Colyton and I trained at all of them. A few years ago, he passed Honiton to Chloe Lock, who ran the Broadclyst class already and she still runs both. Later, after I qualified as an instructor, he passed the Axminster class to me. He still teaches at Colyton and that is where I train now.

● TELL us about your tae kwon-do classes...

Apart from Axminster, I also teach in Sidmouth, Charmouth and Bridport. Adults and children train together and we have quite a few family groups, which pleases me, as I originally trained with my son. I think it helps to have someone at home who shares the interest, so I offer a discounted training rate for family members training together.

All my classes are part of the Tae Kwon-Do Association of Great Britain (TAGB), which has been around since 1983. There are more than 600 TAGB schools in the UK, with around 20,000 students training.

● WHY would you encourage others to take up tae kwon-do?

Certainly for fitness and flexibility. When I started, I was in my thirties and had a very sedentary office job. I was overweight, very unfit and extremely inflexible – I could barely kick above knee height.

Anyone, with enough dedication and effort can go from that as far as they want to take it. For the kids, it also brings confidence, respect, discipline, coordination and good mental focus.

● DO you think the Olympics has inspired others to get involved in the sport?

I certainly hope so. I hope it has inspired a whole generation to get more physically active. As I said, however, tae kwon-do is much more than just a sport. Anyone who wants to try it out is welcome to come along for a couple of free, no obligation trial sessions. You can find out more at www.targettagb.co.uk or call me on 01297 639830.

● WHAT are your other personal interests?

Tae kwon-do takes up most of my time but I also love music. I have only limited musical ability, but I like to try to write songs. There are lots of open mic sessions in several venues around this area and they are a great place to try out new material.

Nobody is judgemental or critical – we all just share in the experience and support each other. Those nights are a lot of fun. I also freely admit to being a computer nerd.

● WHAT do you like about living in this area?

The Devon and Dorset coastlines are amazing. Millions of people come here on holiday just to see them. Even travelling between my classes several times a week there can be times when I can turn a corner and catch a view that takes my breath away.

● WHAT would you add to or change about the local area if you could?

"If it ain't broke, don't fix it" is the saying that applies. I love it here, so why change anything?

● WHAT three items would you want if stranded on a desert island?

My wife, my son and a crate of sun cream. I'm a Scot, we're not genetically designed for sunshine!

● WHERE is your ideal holiday destination and why?

I love to visit France. I've been there many times, although not for a couple of years. I lived and worked on the Swiss/French border for a while several years ago.

I love the French way of eating out – a meal is about much more than just the food. It is a social experience. The pace of life, even in some of the cities, is more laid back and it is really nice to fit in with that for a while.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

FATHER Michael Koppell opens this week: Autumn is one of my favourite times of the year, this 'season of mists and mellow fruit-fulness,' as Keats once called it. It's a time when people's minds naturally turn to the harvest – the harvest of crops and fruit and vegetables. But we mustn't forget that there's also another harvest – God's harvest, we are that harvest.

Yes, there's a long tradition in the scriptures of describing God's people in those terms. In the Old Testament, the prophet Isaiah spoke of the people of Israel as a vineyard which the Lord had planted and had cultivated with all possible care. And then in the gospel, when our Lord sent out 72 of his disciples to go ahead of him to all the places he was to visit, these were the instructions he gave them: 'The harvest is rich, but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send more labourers to his harvest.'

The Church of England has in past days been making its own headlines. In the next few weeks the name of the next Archbishop of Canterbury is due to be announced and it has been suggested that in future an additional post should be created to assist with some of the tasks of the Archbishop for Anglican Communion affairs, especially overseas.

In the meantime the House of Bishops meets to discuss the next steps relating to women bishops. Archbishop Rowan has also launched a book entitled Faith in the Public Square, comprising a collection of his lectures over the past decade.

Other news of interest is that the BBC Head of Religion has just announced that Christians will continue to dominate the regular Thought for the Day, and that Songs of Praise will remain a Christian programme and not be multi-faith.

Seaton Parish resumed the Freedom Café on September 15th, and the next date will be October 20th. Mothers' Prayers for parents, carers or child minders will next be on Wednesday, September 26th at 8pm in Seaton Church.

The Honiton Food Bank, run at the Community Church at the Kings Centre, is anxious to receive gifts of food – call Jill Spring on 01404 45661 for more information.

Opportunities to Praise God Together in Honiton are announced for the Church of the Holy Family on Sunday, September 30th at 6:30pm and at the Baptist Church on Sunday, October 21st at 6:30pm.

Southleigh Parish Church are holding Harvest Festival on Sunday, September 30th at 11:15am – all are welcome.

Help and Care when you need it

Dove Court Care Home

DOVE Court is a beautiful care home set high up on the hillside with stunning views looking over the Axe valley towards Axmouth and out over Lyme Bay. Inside, the home is warm and welcoming with a friendly and caring atmosphere.

The staff at Dove Court are caring and compassionate and prepared to go that little bit further when required. The aim of the staff is not just to support the residents with their basic physical needs but to also provide fun and friendship with the social calendar becoming more important and varied as time goes by.

Moving into a care home can often be seen as the beginning of the end, whereas at Dove Court we like to see it as a new beginning. Gone for our residents are the mundane daily chores of cooking and cleaning. Gone are the lonely days where you are isolated and alone. At Dove Court our residents can use their energy enjoying the freshly prepared meals with no need to do the washing up at the end! Our residents can enjoy going out and about in our very own 'Dove Bus' with no need to worry about driving or parking. Recent trips in the Dove Bus have included trips to Otter Nurseries, Charmouth beach, the Umbourne Fete, Connaught Gardens in Sidmouth, the Donkey Sanctuary and the Memory Café amongst others. Our residents can enjoy entertaining their own guests with refreshments being provided by staff so all the resident has to do is sit back and enjoy their visitors' company.

There is a varied social calendar of activities that happen within the home including visiting retailers, musicians and of course the well loved donkeys from the Donkey Sanctuary. Dove Court has its own activities organiser who is always open to further suggestions. Activities can be for individuals or for groups and involvement in activities is the choice of the resident. Our residents' individual wishes and desires are always of the utmost importance.

The home itself has recently been expanded. The new extension provides 15 new en-suite rooms, eight of which are larger 'Garden Rooms' with a door leading on to their very own patio. The extension has also provided a new fully fitted kitchen, assisted bathrooms, a large conservatory and extended terrace that provides the perfect spot to sit and enjoy those beautiful views over Lyme Bay.

Thistlegate House

It is the uniqueness of Thistlegate House that sets it apart from all other Residential or Nursing care establishments, and it is this same uniqueness which is carried through to the philosophy of care which recognises that we as individuals are all unique and therefore wish for our care to be provided in a unique manner. This requires excellent understanding and communication from the care team that has been hand picked by the owners of Thistlegate House for their experience, professionalism, qualifications and not least their empathetic caring nature, dedication and excellent communication skills which are vital in providing individualistic care of this nature.

So why choose Thistlegate House? perhaps:-

- For the unique "Arts and Crafts" design which remains virtually unaltered from the original architects vision and therefore maintaining the calm relaxed ambience of a fine elegant country residence.
- For the idyllic elevated South facing position of Thistlegate House which affords exceptional views over the surrounding countryside and across to Lyme Bay.
- For the four acres of formal, landscaped, natural and kitchen gardens which may well have been originally designed by Gertrude Jekyll and included a terrace wall of open brickwork, a sunken parterre rose garden and pergola.
- For the spacious accommodation which is traditionally decorated with soft furnishings that includes bespoke Axminster carpet together with fine bespoke oak joinery.

• For the not one but two qualified registered managers with approaching thirty years experience who are also the "live in" owners which ensures that the very highest possible standards of care are maintained at all times.

• For the excellent dedicated hand picked care team whose qualities include not only professionalism, qualifications to RGN level but also an empathetic caring nature and excellent communication skills.

• For the excellent traditional menus prepared by our professional chefs whose past experience have included preparing evening dinner for high ranking members of our Royal Family.

• For the pleasantly surprising fee levels which reflects the Thistlegate House philosophy that the very highest possible standards of care should be available to all.

We believe that Thistlegate House can only be truly appreciated by a personal visit, therefore should you wish to arrange an appointment please contact Mrs. June Webb on 01297 560569.

Britain's Got Talent finalist to entertain on the UK's oldest wurlitzer

BRITAIN'S GOT TALENT finalist, Jean Martyn, is all set to entertain on England's oldest Wurlitzer Cinema Organ on Saturday, September 22nd

at 2.00pm.

The Wurlitzer organ has been located at Beer's Congregational Church for the last 55 years and was previously used at The Picture House in Walsall. Jean's show will be far from ecclesiastical in nature, as she moves effortlessly from Jazz to Classical, Big Band to Broadway, and from 40's Swing to Military Marches. Her variety is endless.

Studio audiences and TV viewers alike rocked and cheered as Jean Martyn bounced her way into the final of Britain's Got Talent last year. With her bubbly personality, it is fair to say that Jean captured the hearts of the nation. Picking up positive praise from the BGT judges, Jean is now known as the nation's favourite entertainment organist.

Immediately after the final the BGT National Tour started, and Jean thrilled audiences the length and breadth of the country. Since appearing on Britain's Got Talent, Jean has received huge support and interest, including an interview on ITV's This Morning programme with Philip Schofield, a feature on the Songs of Praise Mother's Day edition, and St James's Palace to an audience which included HRH Princess Anne, Esther Rantzen, and Rolf Harris. Jean is the only female organist to have recorded on the famous Blackpool Tower Wurlitzer in the last 50 years. To quote one daily newspaper: "Jean is a national treasure".

Jean Martyn's show in Beer is certainly one not to be missed. More details can be found on the website www.beerwurlitzer.co.uk

Admission to the show is just £6.00 which includes interval refreshments, and is in aid of the continued refurbishment of England's Oldest Wurlitzer Cinema Organ.

Laughs galore at Axminster comedy night

A NIGHT of live stand up comedy comes to the Axminster Guildhall this October starting some of the UK's top new talent.

Headlining the show, on Friday, October 12th will be the hilariously funny James Alderson who delights audience of all ages with his tales of family life and getting older. James has rocketed up the comedy charts since starting out two years ago but has been hailed as one to watch for 2012 by promoters all over the UK. He recently returned from a tour of Mallorca and has also just clinched his first major TV appearance on Channel 4 in the Autumn.

Opening the show will be rising star of Welsh Comedy Matt Rees. In his short time on the circuit Matt has clocked up appearances in the final of almost all of the country's top stand up comedy competitions, adding a few titles to his trophy cabinet along the way.

Having just returned from the Edinburgh Comedy Festival Matt is on fine form, and his laid back delivery and quirky take on life is sure to endear him to even the most frosty of audience members, making him the perfect act to kick off any comedy night.

Joining Matt and James will be relative newcomers Wayne the Weird and David Hannant. Wayne the Weird combines the skills of comedy and magic perfectly and will have any audience laughing and gasping in equal measures. Former Devon lad David Hannant will be returning to his home county for the night sharing his tales of life as a country boy in the big city.

Keeping everything together will be local comedian Tom Glover, regular MC at the Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Cafe and Swanage Comedy Festival New Act of the Year 2012. As MC Tom will be guiding the audience through the night, chatting with the crowd, introducing the acts and sharing a few tales of westcountry life along the way.

Andreas Boyde returns to Honiton

MONSIEUR 100,000 VOLTS | Andreas Boyde returns to St Paul's in Honiton

NICKNAMED "Monsieur 100,000 volts", distinguished pianist Andreas Boyde returns to St. Pauls, Honiton on Saturday, September 29th, at 7.30pm to give what promises to be another 'night to remember' in a recital sponsored by The Joanna Leach Foundation in aid of Hospiscare.

Playing a Steinway 'D' Concert Grand hired for the occasion, Andreas is to play three wonderful works that demand the highest technique coupled with inspirational playing: Schubert's Wanderer Fantasie. Ravel's Miroirs, concluding with Pictures at an Exhibition by Mussorgsky.

His CD of the first two works, recorded for Athene Records with Joanna Leach as producer, received 5-star acclaim: "Again Boyde's interpretation reaches beyond virtuosity to let the music speak through the contrasts realized in the clarity that his remarkable technique permits." – Fanfare. "An artist that can convey this level of communication coupled with such consummate skill and breathtaking ability is destined to become famous and rightly so." – Music Web. This recital promises to be another, not to be missed, "breathtaking" experience.

Tickets are currently on sale at the Honiton TIC and will be available on the door on the night.

MARLE GALLERY EXHIBITING ELEMENTAL

THE Marle Gallery in Axminster is currently exhibiting Elemental - A Two Man Show. Nature and the elements, both of landscape and the human form, are central to the work of Molly Garnier and Michael Sole.

Molly Garnier is well known for her small smoky oil paintings of the female nude. Since moving to her native Norfolk, she has been inspired to paint the coastline capturing the distinctive, slightly bleak colours of that very particular seascape.

Michael Sole is captivated by the whole sensory experience of sea and sky. Michael responds to the natural energy of his subject: big seas are portrayed with a physical and confident painting technique enabling the viewer to place himself at the centre of this sensory experience of the world in its most elemental form.

The exhibition runs until October 30th at The Marle Gallery, Axminster.

MUSBURY – £379,950

FOR anyone planning on moving to this lovely part of the country, the whole Jurassic coast area is high on the list of preferred locations. Many want to be within easy reach of the coast and most people are looking for an interesting property with character in a good location without the drone of road noise.

In these days of uncertainty, many buyers are reluctant to commit themselves to anything other than the perfect property that ticks all their boxes. However, so often that perfect property just does not exist and buyers end up spending a long time in rented accommodation just waiting for the right one.

Perhaps then, it is time to think outside the box a bit and consider the benefits of what is available after all? Take this property for example, it certainly has an abundance of character and is in a good village location with little road noise, being set way back from the main road but it is also convenient for easy access to the coast (just 3 miles away) and the market town of Axminster with rail links to London Waterloo (about 2½ miles away). There are facilities within a short walk (i.e. for milk, bread etc) and beautiful countryside with great walks on the doorstep. Musbury village has a primary school and a thriving community, with events to become involved in or just enjoy.

The house has been the village post office and shop for many years. However, due to poor health, the owners are giving up and the property has been granted planning permission for change of use to residential.

The accommodation is well presented and currently comprises three bedrooms, bathroom, first floor sitting room, dining hall, kitchen and breakfast room but the extensive shop and post office premises can now be added to the accommodation to form a substantial home, which could provide four bedrooms and three or four reception rooms depending on how it is altered – it just needs a little imagination! The most surprising additional bonus to the property is a very large stone barn currently used for garaging and storage. There are several options for this, maybe convert to use as an annexe or holiday let (subject to PP of course) or perhaps garaging or hobby space. As the pretty walled courtyard garden is not huge, it may just provide an extension to the garden – a great place for children to play during wet weather.

The property is Grade II Listed and is offered to the market with an guide price of £379,950. For more information or to book a viewing, please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01297 553768.

Fortnam Smith and Banwell 01297 23939

SPOTLIGHT
ON MY SERVICE

Head to Feet

I first started caring for peoples health in the sixties when I did my S.E.N nursing training in Sheffield.

The real introduction to Complementary Medicine was when my second child become ill, and it was only osteopathy that helped her. About the same time a friend of mine was having trouble with her back, she asked me if I could massage it for her, as I seemed to have healing hands, I was able to give her a lot of relief, being in a lot of pain at the time. I become more and more interested in Complementary Medicine and was able to help my friends and family even more.

It wasn't until we came down to live in Axminster, I was working as a Care Assistant in a Dementia Care Home, that I decided to take a course or 3 with the "School of Natural Health Sciences" in Reflexology, Advanced Reflexology", and "Indian Head Massage". I was an A student. I became a member of the "International College of Holistic Medicine". As Indian Head Massage consists also of back and shoulder massage [as well as neck head and face] with or without out oils I am able to continue with Back and Shoulder massage as a separate therapy if required. I am able to work from home including home visits, and care homes. Treatments usually last about 1hr. and includes perfumed candles and soft relaxing music.

Reflexology is massage of the body as a whole through the feet or hands. As with Indian Head Massage it relaxes and stimulates the whole body, thus allowing it to work better. Allowing me to help each client with there own individual needs.

As I am also a carer at home I have been able to realize how important these therapies can be.

New Generation i30 three-door to debut at 2012 Paris Motor Show

- Third member of New Generation i30 family to broaden range's appeal
- Dynamic styling incorporates new front, side and rear design features
- Designed, engineered and manufactured in Europe, for Europe

AHEAD of its world debut at the 2012 Paris Motor Show, the New Generation i30 three-door has today been revealed. The third member of the New Generation i30 family, the three-door joins the five-door hatchback and the Tourer to extend the broad appeal of Hyundai's 'made for Europe' C-segment range to an even wider audience.

Central to the appeal of the three-door is its distinctive, sporty styling. Incorporating Hyundai's 'fluidic sculpture' form language, the new model's sharply-raked beltline, more angular glasshouse silhouette and longer front doors provide it with a more dynamic profile, and the effect is enhanced by changes to front and rear styling.

A new, black-finished mesh insert and central bar accentuate Hyundai's hexagonal grille, which is flanked by new, sportier fog lamp clusters consisting of round spots connected to LED daytime running light strips. The mesh treatment is continued in the clusters, and the front-end design is completed by a newly-profiled lower bumper.

At the rear, the remodelled lower bumper area includes new horizontal, sculpted fog lamps that contrast with the upright units of the five-door. These lights and a new black insert at the bottom of the bumper create the impression of a wider, sportier rear design. Exclusive 16-inch alloy wheels complete the exterior transformation.

Allan Rushforth, Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Hyundai Motor Europe, said: "The New Generation i30 three-door has been conceived solely for Europe, and will strengthen Hyundai's presence further in the segment where we have seen our greatest success since 2007. Just as important, its sporty looks – offering a fresh interpretation of fluidic sculpture – will generate greater brand awareness and enhance consumer perceptions of Hyundai in Europe."

New Generation i30 three-door retains the positive characteristics of the five-door, providing high standards of quality, equipment and comfort. Drivers will experience Europe-tuned ride and handling, and can alter the settings of the FLEX STEER system to change steering assistance depending on their preference and prevailing conditions.

The New Generation i30 is offered with a choice of four engines and five power outputs, together with six-speed manual and automatic transmissions. The highlight of the powertrain range is the 'U-II' 1.6-litre diesel engine, generating 128PS yet emitting only 97g/km of CO₂. Together, these figures deliver the best power-to-efficiency ratio in the segment.

The New Generation i30 provides the best evidence yet of Hyundai's commitment to producing cars in Europe, for Europe – combining the design and engineering expertise of the team at Hyundai's European R&D Centre in Germany with the proven manufacturing excellence of the company's Czech factory.

Buyers of the New Generation i30 will benefit from 5 Year Triple Care, comprising a five-year unlimited warranty, five years' roadside assistance, and five years of vehicle health checks.

The New Generation i30 three-door will be officially unveiled at the 2012 Paris Motor Show during the company's press conference at 17:00 (CET) on Thursday 27 September 2012, on the Hyundai booth.

New entry-level models broaden Volkswagen Beetle's appeal

Volkswagen has today added two more engine derivatives to the Beetle line-up, thus completing the range and not only lowering the entry-level price by over £1,400, but also reducing the entry-level carbon dioxide emissions value. This means the eye-catching hatch has additional appeal for not only style-conscious buyers, but also those looking for a high value and environmentally-friendly vehicle.

Available to order from Volkswagen Retailers from today and ready for delivery to customers in January 2013 are the 1.2-litre TSI 105 PS with a six-speed manual gearbox (joining the DSG version of the same powerplant) and the 1.6-litre TDI 105 PS with BlueMotion Technology which is offered with either a five-speed manual or seven-speed DSG transmission. Both entry level models are available in entry-level 'Beetle' or 'Design' trim.

The entry-level 1.2-litre TSI with manual gearbox is priced at £15,195 (RRP OTR), which is £1,405 less than the current starting point for the range (for the same 1.2-litre engine but with a DSG gearbox).

Likewise, entry-level carbon dioxide emissions are lowered by 12 per cent to 113 g/km thanks to the addition of the 1.6-litre TDI engine with BlueMotion Technology modifications. As well as bringing lower CO2 values and a combined mpg value of 5.7, the addition of this smaller engine lowers the threshold for diesel-powered Beetle ownership by over £3,000, with the 1.6-litre TDI costing £17,030 (RRP OTR).

The Beetle was launched in the UK in March, with just one engine and trim level available. Since then a raft of new models have been added, with the latest two entry-level engine and gearbox combinations completing the range. Three standard trim levels – Beetle, Design and Sport – are now available, as well as the range-topping Turbo Black and Turbo Silver special editions. Customers can now choose from three petrol engines – a 1.2-litre TSI 105 PS with manual or DSG gearbox, a 1.4-litre 160 PS with manual transmission and a 2.0-litre 200 PS with manual or DSG gearbox; and two diesels – the 1.6-litre TDI 105 PS with BlueMotion Technology (Stop/Start and battery regeneration added) and the 2.0-litre TDI with 140 PS.

All Beetle models can be ordered now via Volkswagen Retailers across the UK, with details available on www.volkswagen.co.uk/beetle.

Fenny hit seven and go second

HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED are the new Premier Division pace-makers following their 2-0 victory at TOPSHAM TOWN.

But United are being chased by several surprise packages including HATHERLEIGH TOWN who enjoyed an excellent 3-0 victory at BUDLEIGH SALTERTON. Mark Lake, Ryan Davies and Luke Reynolds were the Hatherleigh scorers.

FENITON destroyed WILLAND ROVERS 7-0 with Paul Dowling on fire with four goals, Andrew Jones scored twice and Dave O'Connor once, but Willand's chances were reduced when they had Paul Pocock sent-off.

ST MARTINS came from behind to beat their great rivals SEATON TOWN 3-1. The Seaside's led through Jonny Wilkinson at the break but were unable to contain Saints as Lewis Heaver, Matt Anderson and Darren Eshun all netted.

CLYST VALLEY seem to have got over their bad start to the season winning 2-1 at an unlucky EXMOUTH AMATEURS who are still seeking their first point since getting promoted. Man-of-the-Match Steve Millington had both Valley goals.

BEER ALBION were 4-1 up against MORCHARD BISHOP at half-time and then had to snatch a late goal to register a 5-3 success. Two-goal Adam Wakley, Chris Long, Jamie Trewick and Pedro Fontes had the Fishermen's goals.

NEWTOWN who reached the quarter-finals of the Graddon Vending Premier Cup last season were booted out 5-0 at the first attempt by Plymouth's MOUNT GOULD.

HONITON TOWN finally tasted success as they edged out BROADHEMPSTONE 3-2. Tim Genders with a brace and Sam Farmer scored.

OFFWELL RANGERS beat HORRABRIDGE 4-1 with Craig Sluman on target twice and keeper Kieran Sluman saved a penalty.

OTTERY ST MARY beat DARTMOUTH UNITED 3-1, Amidou Denilson, Ryan Pearson and Joe Broadbent scored.

MORCHARD BISHOP topped the scoring in the Devon Intermediate Cup with a 12-1 romp at home to TEDBURN ST MARY. Both Ryan Piper and Phil Greenslade hit four goals. Charlie Parkhouse also featured with a hat-trick.

Mike Back snared a hat-trick for CHERITON FITZPAINE in their 5-0 win against HONITON TOWN.

South West Peninsular League Div One (East)
AXMINSTER maintained their good start to the season with a battling 1-0 victory over Galmpton at Sector Lane on Saturday with a 66th minute fortuitous goal from livewire substitute Ben Vine. WRITES PHILIP EVANS.
The South Devon side travelled to Axminster with just one victory from their first four games but they put up a spirited and robust performance, proving that there are no easy sides in Division One (East).

In front of the biggest crowd of the season at Sector, the Tigers boosted their points tally to 13 to retain fourth place, three points behind leaders Teignmouth but with a game in hand.

SIDMOUTH Town Reserves 'got out of jail' with a fortunate 2-1 home win over Westexs.

Despite being given the perfect start when Mark Burdus poked home after five minutes they never really got their normal fluid passing game going and only looked dangerous from set pieces.

Westexs were using the ball much better and, but from some good keeping/last ditch tackling and poor finishing, they could have been 3 goals ahead before Joe Nield finished well to double the lead.

The second-half was even worse for the home side and if it wasn't for man-of-the-match Craig Fitzhenry pulling off a fine penalty save they could have been in big trouble.

Westexs got a deserved goal back with four minutes left, thankfully the Vikings held on for three somewhat fortunate points.

Manager Nick Ogden was not too happy and said: "I know we had a lot of young players in today and got disrupted when a couple had to go off injured, but the truth is we had a shocker."

"All the guys, to their credit, put their hands up for that, they know it was unacceptable and I'm confident they will improve as a team because they are all good players."

"Fitz in goal had an outstanding game and I hope in the next game he won't be needed as much."

OFFWELL RANG 4 HORRABRIDGE 1

DEVON SENIOR CUP - R1

OFFWELL opened the scoring courtesy of Craig Sluman, but the visitors leveled soon after.

Sluman scored again to restore the lead and Ben Fullick scored the third, to make it 3-1 at half-time.

The hosts worked hard all match and Fullick was rewarded for his efforts when he scored the fourth.

Horrabridge were awarded a penalty but Rangers' keeper Kieren Sluman rose to the challenge, and made a great save.

Acting Offwell manager Alex McCreadie-Taylor was pleased with whole team and awarded his man-of-the-match award jointly to Sluman and Fullick.

GERRY HARTLEY TROPHY

This month's Stableford had the added attraction of playing for the Gerry Hartley Trophy, and although players in Division 2 competed hard for success, with three players finishing under par, it was Division 1 player Ed Reece who took the honours with 41 pts.

Runners-up in Division 1 were Ron Graham (35pts) and Alan Pollock, (34).

The three Division 2 fighters were Tim Welch (39pts), Sam Bowyer Thornton (38) and Mark Fowler (37). No name on the board for this one but a lovely club trophy to win.

SENIOR SECTION

After being called off the course last week due to the mist, 68 Seniors enjoyed a full round playing a team Stableford event in spite of the drizzle.

The format did not meet with universal approval! One score counted on the par 4s, two on the par 3s and all three on the par 5s.

The runaway winners were Ted Chandler, Robin Mitchell & Ray Cross with 57 points, beating the rest of the field by two clear shots.

Runners-up were Andy Sharland, John Bevan & Phil Faulkner.

A count back was needed for third spot which was taken by John Dickinson, Keith Thomas & Alan Booth with the last prize going to Pat Purtell, Fred Thomas & Howard Pritchard.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

LADIES SECTION

Last Friday the Ladies of Axe Cliff welcomed a host of ladies to their Open.

This took the form of a Stableford competition, full handicap in teams of three with the two best scores to count.

The winners, with 73 points, were from Camedown - Ada Ford, Mary Catterkey and Margaret Allen. Second place went to a trio from Yeovil and Sherborne namely Rosemary Bickhan, Hannah Jacobson and Esma Woods with 71 points.

In third place - Sue Slade, Phyl Lewison and Gill Magrath with 69 points. The prizes went up to 8th place with the only two Axe Cliff home players to gain a prize were Helen Kenworthy and Alison Cook in 5th and 6th place.

Nearest the pin for the visitors went to Margaret Allen from Came Down.

The longest drive for the silver players went to Diane Gough from Taunton Vale and in the bronze division to Brenda Hyde from Honiton.

Last Wednesday the ladies competed for the EWGA Medal combined with the Lorraine Cup which was eligible for any ladies who had won a Medal in the previous year.

Winner of the Medal was Alison Cook with Sandra Walker retaining the Lorraine Cup for another year.

Netball Honiton League

Signs are good for new team

THE winter season got underway with big wins for Flamingos and OPG and defeats for newly promoted Weather Girls and Tip Top Trees.

With Tracey Moran in great form at centre for OPG the young 3Ts side found the going very tough. It was a baptism of fire for their first game in the top flight. Hayley Spiller in particular gave a good account of herself, whilst the youngest player in the league, Molly Simpson [14] acquitted herself well.

OPG got off to a barnstorming start and had a 12-1 lead at quarter time – from there they didn't look back and ran out winners by 57-4.

Flamingos had a tougher game against Uplowman, for whom Jules Heal played well. At quarter time it was all square at 7-7, but by half way the Flamingos, with Trish Warwick in fine form had a 20-13 lead. Despite working hard Uplowman could not get back in touch and Flamingos finished the game winners by 37-20.

The third game of the night saw another newly promoted team in action. This time it was Weather Girls, back in the top flight against Signs South West.

The start of the netball season has seen a new name and sponsor for one of the teams in division one.

Seaton based sign-making firm 'Signs South West', who this year celebrate their 10th anniversary designing, manufacturing and installing signs throughout the region (http://www.signssouthwest.co.uk/), are the latest company to support the Honiton league. The team formerly known as Bo-Peeps now play under the SSW banner.

The game was a close affair with Debbie Wheeler playing well for SSW and Charlie Sanders doing well for Weather Girls.

Signs South West were delighted to learn that the team secured a win in their first match of the season (22-20) and wish them all the best for their future games.

Division Two has 2 new teams in its ranks – Otter Valley Dairy and Water Babes. OVD were up against Pixies and, despite hard work from the team and in particular Charlotte Brown, the Pixies proved too strong winning 24-5 with Flic Elliot in good form.

Hi Q were back in division 2 and up against Sidmouth Toucans. The game got off to a close start with Hi Q edging the first period 8-6, before building a 21-11 lead thanks in part to good play from Bev Parris at centre.

In the third period Toucans closed the gap slightly, with Rachel Darlami playing well. The final period belonged to Hi Q as they moved clear to record a 41 -24 win that left Sidmouth with a point.

Disappointingly the third game did not take place as JD tyres were unable to field a side – so hawks took the 3 points and a +10 goal difference whilst JD were docked 3 points and 10 goals.

Ruthless Sidmouth pile-up points

WITH KEITH JENKIN

SIDMOUTH 56 NORTH DORSET 0

IT could be argued that Sidmouth deserved more in the way of league points from their opening two encounters than they actually got.

They made no mistake on Saturday welcoming the newly promoted Gillingham side by eight tries to nil.

In fact it was the visitors who started the brighter, extending the home defence with a flowing threequarter move that was checked just short of the line, before Tom Whelan steadied the ship by kicking a penalty.

Sidmouth then began to quietly gain control and eventually increased their lead after Matt Farrington had profited from Meadham's broken field running. Tom Hodge added the extras and the hosts held a 10-0 interval lead.

The third quarter was pivotal to the result. The visitors lost a player to the sin bin. Whelan kicked the resultant penalty and, while North Dorset were a man short, Sidmouth put the result beyond doubt.

Pyne carried well out of defence and, after good work by Hodge and Whelan, Josh Bess touched down.

Then Rhys Thomas was the first to reach after home pressure at a scrum close to the visitors' line had caused the ball to run loose, and, when blind side winger Meadham came into the line and made space for James Powell, they had scored three tries within the ten minute penalty.

Whelan converted the third try and his side now led 30-0.

This scoring spate had really taken the wind out of the North Dorset sails and the floodgates opened rather.

Out-half Jason Luff then broke twice in quick succession and put Sam Meadham in for tries.

Tom Seward then followed a Whelan Garrowen and took full advantage when the defenders failed to cope. Whelan converted this score before Tom Irish drove over from close range to complete the scoring and to take his side to a most comprehensive win.

WELLINGTON 37 HONITON 11

HONITON are finding that, generally speaking, their opponents in the Western Counties Division are well placed and eager to take advantage of their opponents' inefficiencies. This was indeed the case on Saturday.

Wellington scored three first-half tries, with the first being perhaps the result of a refereeing lapse, and the second coming as a result of their opponents' defensive mix up.

Honiton could only muster two George Meadows penalties in reply, and therefore trailed 22-6 at the halfway stage.

The Somerset side scored two more tries during the second period, converting one of them and adding a penalty goal for good measure.

Honiton never gave up the ghost however. They kept competing and were rewarded with a well-worked try, touched down by Ollie Hyland, at the last.

The Honiton second side was without a fixture having kept the weekend clear in view of a wedding in its ranks.

PREVIEW

THE league programme continues on Saturday next and both local clubs have games that will really test them.

SIDMOUTH travel to take on newly promoted NORTH PETHERTON, a side whom, I must confess, I know little about, they having won the Western Counties (West) Division last season.

One cannot argue with their credentials however for they are the only side whose 100 per cent record is intact. Their opening three fixtures have perhaps been against clubs who will not end the season in the division's top flight.

Sidmouth will certainly not find the going easy but I do take them to come away with a win.

HONITON, who are finding things a little rich for their blood in the Western Counties Division, entertain TRURO, a side who have not enjoyed the best of starts to their campaign, although they did notch a comfortable win against bottom side Bude.

Honiton will certainly find the going difficult against these opponents, home advantage notwithstanding.

As to the second sides, Honiton seconds can expect a competitive encounter at Culmpton seconds, while Sidmouth seconds cannot expect to get too much change from Topsham of the Devon league, whom they take on at the Blackmore. Sidmouth thirds travel to Exmouth thirds and will do well to win there.

HONITON Cricket club's 2nd team captain Andrew Lapping has decided to step aside after being in charge of the side for eight years with two years as 1st XI captain in between.

The outgoing captain gave the following statement to the HCC committee: "Now that the 2nd team are in the highest division they have ever been in and, but for availability and the weather, would of been possibly in the top four, I have decided that it's time for me to step aside and concentrate on just playing, and for someone to bring fresh ideas to the team."

THE week started on Sunday, September 9th with an excellent win for Seaton who travelled to Ilminster to play the final of the Two Counties Competition.

On Monday we travelled to Taunton to play a friendly triples competition. Seaton won a close fought match by just five points. Top rink was S. Pike, K. Russell & J. Miles.

South Petherton visited Seaton on Thursday, September 13th. Seaton won 77-75. Seaton's top rink was; G. Sykes, E. Jenkin, H. Smith & R. Carnell who won 24-19.

We finished the week with the re-arranged Carnival Drive

There was an excellent turnout for this event, a variety of unusual hats were worn making for a relaxed and extremely enjoyable afternoon.

The winning Triple was E. Jenkin, K. Miles & S. Rutter who were presented with the carnival cup by men's captain M. Carvell. Over £150 was raised for the carnival from rink fees and a raffle.

FENITON with Roger Smith

THE men's team entertained tourists Keynsham from Bristol. In a close match the tourists secured a narrow 91-90 victory.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

ON Sunday, September 9th Honiton Running Club members Graham Reeves, Sam Shute, and Lesley Crocker took part in the Force 10k at Powderham Castle.

The route starts at the castle and takes runners around the estate and through the woodlands. It was very warm and sunny. Graham was first back in 13th place in a time of 40 minutes 56 seconds.

Next back was Lesley in 50-27 and 89th place. Sam followed in 61-40 and 222nd. There were 302 finishers.

The Charmouth Challenge usually takes place in July but due to extreme weather conditions which would have made the run dangerous; it was postponed until last Sunday.

The run goes through some spectacular coastal scenery with amazing views and the eight mile route includes an ascent of Golden Cap.

Bruce Strawbridge was first back for Honiton finishing in 18th place and delighted with his time of 1:05:46.

Howard Bidmead also had a great race to finish in 28th position in 1:11:58. Judy Davey was the only female Honiton representative and she was pleased with her 40th place finishing in 1:15:59.

The winner was Kyle Hackett who managed the speedy time of 54:40.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

THERE were two races on offer starting from Charmouth on Sunday.

First there was the "High Ways and Sky Ways" starting at 9.30am. Runners had a choice of either eight, 13 or 18 mile self-navigated routes to enjoy the delights of the Dorset countryside.

The AVR team comprising Ethan, Gill and Jon Day plus Janet Woodward were first in the eight mile version taking 2:16. Team Sibley - James and Tim - were 5th in the 13-mile edition taking 2:33.

Amy Greenhalgh was the victor in the very tiring 18 mile event in 3:17.

Phil and Simon Bayliss ran together, finishing joint 9th in 3:33 with John Larcombe, 11th in 4:02. Those two off road stalwarts Geoff Woodward and Steve Reynolds were joint 15th along with Richard Dodge. After their endeavours the runners enjoyed a super pasty courtesy of Ganesha Wholefoods Ltd.

Next off was the eight-mile Charmouth Challenge, the most southerly fell race in England.

This race was won by Kyle Hackett of Poole Runners in 54:36, closely followed by AVR's Tim Lenton in 54:49.

Ian Apps once again showed he is returning to form by finishing 16th in 1:05:28 and Martin Croad really excelled when he finished 17th, 1:05:34. Eleanor Wood had another great race, she was 2nd lady, 26th overall in 1:10:21. Chris Driver dreams of beating Eleanor, but this was not his day as he completed 35th in 1:14:50.

Ian Clements and Dave Thomas were together for a while, but Dave's recently caught Great North Bug slowed him so Ian finished 44th, 1:17:08 and Dave 46th, 1:17:38.

Richard Hale started slowly, then sped up and caught son in law Sam Wickins, but Sam is made of sterner stuff and sped up to finish 52nd, 1:19:40 with Richard just behind in 1:20:14.

Siobhan Reddy ran well to finish 59th in 1:21:48. Dave Mutter was the last AVR to finish, 66th in 1:23:58.

The Charmouth 2.5 mile Fun Run was held in the afternoon and William Blackledge ran well to finish 12th in 14:52. Liz Thomas also had a go and finished 94th in 26:45.

◆ On Wednesday night Luke Reed travelled to the Eton Dorney rowing lakes to take part in round three of the Votwo evening sprint Triathlon series.

It turned out to be a very good night for Luke who came in 4th overall out of 190 finishers, in a time of 1.04.16.

The distances and splits were: 750m lake swim - 12.27, 20k bike - 32.07, 5k run - 18.46.

Then on Sunday he travelled to Padstow for the Votwo Standard distance Triathlon, which included the National Police Championships, meaning a very high standard of racing.

Luke finished a very good week of racing finishing 12th overall in 2.28.34. Distances and Splits: 1500m Sea Swim - 31.45, 40k Bike - 1.11.30, 10k off road run - 43.40.

On Saturday, Liam Roberts completed a training session of 5km, followed by five repetitions of 75 secs and then two miles at half-marathon pace.

Training isn't normally reported on but the 5km at the start of this session was the Cannon Hill Parkrun in Birmingham.

Liam won this by 46 seconds in 15:42, slicing six seconds off of his PB despite getting the pacing wrong by starting off slightly too hard.

Hopefully there is much more time to be lopped off on in a competitive race on a fast course.

Siobhan Reddy ran well to finish 59th

Heavitree Bulls 2
FENITON were given a rude awakening as Heavitree Bulls took an early lead.

But the hosts were soon level as Lawrence Walker fired in from the edge of the area.

Two minutes later Matt Jeacock scored from a corner which deflected in off the 'keeper, only for the visitors to level soon after.

Feniton regained the lead just before half-time when Walker tapped-in following fine work by Ollie Glanville down the left wing.

The second-half was again very even before Alex Glanville steadied Feniton nerves with fine strike.

In injury-time Dan Badcott crowned off a Man-of-the-match performance with a great run and finish.

Heavitree Tigers 0

IN the second game against Heavitree Tigers Matt Jeacock opened the scoring before Man-of-the-Match Finley Burston doubled Feniton's advantage with a good finish.

Feniton extended their lead in the second-half with a brace from Ollie Glanville either side of a Dan Badcott finish.

Ollie Binion 3, Lewis Cottam 2, Connor Cox 2, Max Richardson 2, Oliver Brown and Ricky Littleley scored the goals as Seaton Town u14s beat hosts Millwey Rise 11-1.

Man-of-the-match was Brandon Curl. Next week Seaton are home to Honiton kick off 10.30am.

THE final round of matches saw Division 3 decided by the closest of margins. Axe Cliff B's 4-1 win over Lamb High Flyers saw them clinch the title on count-back, with a 6-4 aggregate win over Kings Cavaliers in league games during the season. White Hart A's 4-1 win was not quite enough, but with the promise of new teams joining the league next year, they may still be promoted.

The top two Division titles were already decided; Colyton FC secured runners-up spot in Division 1 with a 3-2 win over Beer Club; Kings Arms A and New Inn Flyers are relegated.

In Division 2, Royal Clarence A's 4-1 win at the Golden Wonders ensured their first visit to the top flight next season, whilst relegating the Musbury side.

Honiton Hornets 1 Sidmouth & Ottery 0

In beautiful weather for the opening game to the new season, Honiton Hornets hockey club played newly amalgamated neighbours Sidmouth & Ottery St Mary in friendly. For most of the match play was in the Sid-Otter half of the pitch; and eventually a goal resulted when newcomer, Laura Frank scored from the edge of the circle.

All in all an excellent way to start the new season, with everyone working together contributing to the good result - it promises well for Honiton's future in the 2012-2013 League. Player-of-the-Match: Lucy Le Cocq.

Tigers at Sector for time being

AXMINSTER Town's fond farewell to Sector Lane is on hold – at least for another few weeks.

Contrary to reports in other newspapers, Saturday's 1-0 victory over Galmpton United was not the Tigers' swan-song at Sector, which for years has provided one of the best playing surfaces for miles around.

Axminster are planning to move to a new ground in Chard Road, having agreed to sell Sector to developers Devonshire Homes who will be building 71 new homes on the football field.

Devonshire Homes have just secured £150,000 funding for their development plans and are anxious to start work on the first stage. Whilst work continued on the new Chard Road site, the Tigers were planning to ground-share with Ottery St Mary at Washbrook Meadows.

But I can exclusively reveal that it is unlikely that Axminster will be vacating Sector Lane any day soon as the seeding of the new pitches at Chard Road, due this autumn, has been put back to next spring.

With the new clubhouse due to be completed by January next year, the Tigers would have been playing on their new pitches by October next season had the seeding taken place.

But now it looks that it will be at least 18 months to two years before the move finally takes place.

Self admits to being "extremely disappointed" by the delay and the matter is now in the hands of the club solicitors to thrash out.

"We are keen to get the project moving but the ball is now firmly in Devonshire Homes' court," said Self.

The first team will be back at Sector this coming Saturday for a Throgmorton Cup first round tie against South West Peninsular Division 1 (East) local rivals Sidmouth Town who are still looking for their first league win of the season. Kick-off is at 2.30 pm.

The following Saturday (September 29th), Sector plays host to a Reserve team match against Seaton Town and will use the occasion to boost funds by holding a darts, quiz and curry night.

◆ Seaton Town, who went down 3-1 to St Martin's last Saturday after taking the lead, will be looking for revenge when the two teams meet again at Colyford Road in the Devon and Exeter Premier division this coming Saturday.

Beer Albion, having beaten Morchard Bishop 5-3 on Saturday have a tough home tie against leaders Heavitree. Division One side Colyton travel to mid-tableers Heavitree Social Club.

Millwey Rise have made a good start to the season with a league and cup victory under their belt.

On Saturday they travel to Farway United in the Perry Street Premier division (kick-off 2 pm).

◆ TALENTED striker Sam Dibling has asked PULMAN'S VIEW SPORT to clarify why he decided not to make himself available for Axminster Town's trip to Appledore last season, having played a couple of early games for the Tigers.

I described his decision as "bizarre", prompting a barrage of criticism on Facebook with one Millwey supporter commenting "now the Press hate us," a ridiculous exaggeration.

Dibling emailed me to explain that he was unable to travel to Appledore because of his commitments training the Millwey Rise youth team players on Saturday mornings.

I understand that Dibling is now committing himself to Millwey, as he did last season in helping them to win promotion to the Perry Street Premier division, and played in the Blues' 5-3 victory in the Devon Intermediate Cup first round (East) tie against Bow AAC on Saturday.

Axminster chairman Ray Self is anxious that the rivalry between the Tigers and Millwey is not exacerbated by inflammatory Facebook comments between players and is introducing measures to curb and control any excesses
